Additional Information:

- Students must arrive 15 minutes before the exam. Once students enter the exam space, they cannot talk.
- Students must present school or picture ID for entrance into the exam area
- Students may not bring any cell phones, smart watches, headsets, iPods, earbuds, or any other type of electronic devices into the examination room. Students should plan to store their phones in their lockers or can check them in at the “phone/bag check” in the cafeteria.
- No hand-held electronic dictionaries and electronic or paper templates and/or graphic organizers are allowed. Only Alberta Education approved calculators are permitted for the Math and Science exams.
- Any student in possession of material not allowed in an examination room will have their mark invalidated.
- No hats or jackets are allowed in the exam area.
- Students may not enter or leave the examination room without the consent of the supervising examiner.
- For diploma exams, students must not write their name or the name of their school anywhere in or on an examination booklet, except in the designated space provided on the back cover
- Students who arrive more than one hour after the start time of an examination will not be allowed to write the exam.
- Students must write the examination within the specified time and may not hand in a paper until at least one hour of the examination time has elapsed.
- Students may not talk, whisper, or exchange information or writing tools/materials with another student.
- Students should use an HB pencil to record their answers on the machine scored answer sheets.
- No print materials OR blank paper, with the exception of approved dictionaries, thesauruses, and/or writing handbooks can be brought into the exam room. Approved print materials must not contain any extraneous text
- Students are responsible for providing their own dictionary and thesaurus
- Students are not permitted to bring study notes or blank pieces of paper into the exam room. For written response rough drafts, students may only use paper that is provided by the school. Students are encouraged to use their booklets for planning and working through their responses. All extra paper used by students during the diploma exam will be returned to Alberta Education. Students may not bring any papers, notes of any kind, or books (other than authorized resources) into the examination room.
- Students may not remove any examinations or examination materials from the examination room. This includes tear-out pages in diploma exam booklets and any rough draft material produced by students writing their Part A exam using a computer.
- For all diploma examinations, students will be provided with up to double the official posted time if required.

Breaches of Security for Examinations

Students are expected to comply with the Non-Diploma/Diploma Examination Rules. Students who interfere with the security of examinations, falsify results, disrupt others, or commit any other act that may enable them to inaccurately represent their achievement may:

1. be evicted from exam room
2. have exam invalidated
3. be barred from writing any other Alberta Education diploma
4. have official transcripts withheld
5. have official transcripts annotated

Exam conflicts?

Please note - Writing two exams on the same day does not necessarily generate an exam conflict.

Students are expected to write their exams on the expected date and time. Any unique/extraordinary circumstances need to be appealed to your teacher and the exam coordinator, Ms. Costa. It is an expectation that communication will take place with both parties so that everyone is informed, and a plan can be made.
